

Ed Quigley's fly fishing tales embrace yet transcends the fly fisher's world much as Bryson's A Walk in the Woods transcends the hikers' world. Quigley takes his readers to remote Labrador, to Alaska, Scotland, Ireland, the Florida Keys, to a Pepsi shack on the Catawba in the Carolinas, to a tackle shop no bigger than a rooster's nest on 42nd street, to Pennsylvania's Kettle Creek. It is a journey suffused with the sizzle of sirloins on a Coleman stove, the fragrance of Cohiba cigars, with vintage wine and Budweiser. It is a romp in the outdoors filled unforgettable characters like Mr. Earp, a 100 % West Virginian and 50% Cherokee; and Mr. Cotter, the quintessential NY cop turned fly fishing gentleman. Quigley's pursuit of trout, salmon, bonefish, bass and tarpon will bring smiles to the lips of fly fishermen and anyone who loves the company of rivers.
